This election is about

I've lived in London my whole life, and always worked to make it a better place.

London is a more successful city, and our job is to make sure all Londoners benefit from that success.

My priorities are London's priorities - transport, crime, housing and good community relations. London must make its success sustainable by tackling the problem of climate change.

This election is about ensuring that every Londoner shares in our city's success. The Tories will risk that success - and are not interested in making sure it is shared by everyone.

That's what's at stake on May 1.

Ken

One of my top priorities is increasing the number of new affordable homes being built. Ken Livingstone has set a 50% affordable housing target.

We also need fair housing allocation systems based on local people's needs for a home.

There are now Safer Neighbourhood teams in all parts of London, tackling crime and anti-social behaviour. Crime is at a 10 year low, but we need zero tolerance to anyone carrying weapons. Londoners need to know they're safe no matter what time of the day or night.

We need to keep London moving. So Labour has invested in London's transport.

2 million more people using the bus every day. Improvements to the tube. More cycle routes. More's being done. Ken's pledged older people can use their Freedom Pass at all times, including before 9am.

I pledge to

- 1 See 1,000 more police for London
- 2 Work for zero tolerance on carrying knives and guns.
- 3 Ensure we have 50% affordable housing in Redbridge & Havering.
- 4 Get facilities and employment opportunities for young people.
- 5 Ensure that the East London Transit becomes a reality.

Balvinder Sand talks about the issues that matter

This election is about London's future, improving transport, keeping Londoners safe, providing affordable housing, and extending opportunities.

I believe in a common sense approach to community politics, and justice. I will make City Hall more accessible by producing a dedicated website and reporting back.

Ken has provided Safe Neighbourhood Teams in every ward - and I welcome the 1,000 more police for London also promised. At the same time, I want to see zero tolerance on knife and gun crimes. We must work together to send a clear message that we want to walk the streets of London without fear.

"I want 1,000 more police officers for London's streets."

I want Londoners to play their part and be part of a London family all looking out for each other and keeping our immediate surroundings free from graffiti and littering.

We have to be the eyes and ears of the authorities and report such crimes the minute they take place, so that the authorities can act upon them immediately.

Vote for Mayor Ken Livingstone
His record is of improving public services like policing and transport, and also leading the way on climate change. This election is about ensuring that every Londoner shares in this city's success. That's what's at stake on May 1.

Vote for your local Labour Assembly Member Balvinder Sand
By supporting Ken in City Hall, they have defended Freedom Passes, secured more affordable housing and better services in London, often stopping Conservative attacks to scrap them.

Vote for London Labour Assembly Member
Vote Labour for a more diverse and successful London, and make sure extremist, far-right groups do not get into City Hall - ruining our vibrant city.
